

The image displays a mobile game's main screen. At the top, there is a grid of cards representing different characters or units. Each card features a small portrait, the character's name in Korean, and some numerical values. Below this grid, there is a larger, detailed view of a specific character named "SONG". This view includes a larger portrait, the character's level (LV. 10), and several skill icons with names like "FIRE", "ICE", and "WATER". The overall layout is clean and organized, typical of modern mobile RPGs.
